

People's Voices:

Challenging the G-20's Agenda of Corporate Globalization

What is the G-20? How do their policies affect me? What can we do?

On the North Side

Thursday, Sept. 24, 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

People's Voices: A Global/Local Exchange
Emmanuel Episcopal Church, 957 W. North
Ave. 15233

Poverty, debt, neighborhood violence, lack of good jobs, and economic development that disrupts communities. These issues don't just impact Pittsburgh – around the world, communities face similar problems. We invite you to join a discussion circle where Pittsburghers will have an opportunity to engage in conversations about these and other issues with local, national and international participants.

6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

People's Tribunal

Calvary United Methodist Church, 971 Beech
Ave., PA 15233

The economic development priorities of the G-20 will be put on trial. We'll hear testimony from experts and people who have experienced devastation caused by G-20 policies, and the tribunal will reach a verdict.

PEOPLE'S VOICES
NORTHSIDE
SEPT.23-25,2009
www.pittsburghunited.org/g20

For more information visit www.pittsburghunited.org/g20, email peoplesvoices.events@gmail.com or call: 412-231-8648.

Organized by: Alliance for Responsible Trade/Hemispheric Social Alliance, Center for Latin American Studies University of Pittsburgh, G6 Billion, Grassroots Global Justice Alliance, National Jobs with Justice, Pa. American Friends Service Committee, Pittsburgh United/Northside United, Roots of Promise, Students for Radical Change, United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America (UE). Also endorsed by (list in formation): Bail Out the People Not the Banks, Jubilee USA, Pennsylvania Fair Trade Coalition, Social Watch, Three Rivers Community Foundation, United Steelworkers (USW), United Students Against Sweatshops Pittsburgh Chapter.

People's Voices:

Challenging the G-20's Agenda of Corporate Globalization

What is the G-20? How do their policies affect me? What can we do?

In Oakland

Wednesday, Sept. 23, 12:30 to 2:30 p.m.

University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh Athletic Association,
Pennsylvania Room

4215 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213

Presentation and exchange with representatives from the finance ministries of four major governments from the Global South: Argentina, Brazil, South Africa and India

Friday, Sept. 25, 9:00 to 11:30 a.m.

David Lawrence Hall, University of Pittsburgh (Forbes Ave. on right side of skywalk).

Leaders of labor, indigenous and environmental organizations will criticize G-20 policies and offer alternative models of development.

Speakers include:

Benedicto Martinez, a leader of the Mexican independent trade union movement

Alberto Arroyo, an economist with the Red Mexicana Frente al Libre
Comercio

Miriam Miranda, an Afro-Honduran leader of the Resistance Front against the Coup.

PEOPLE'S VOICES
OAKLAND
SEPT.23-25,2009
www.pittsburghunited.org/g20

On the Hill

Wednesday, Sept. 23, 3:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Monumental Baptist Church

2240 Wylie Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15219.

A panel of local, national and international leaders and experts will explore how G-20 policies affect our communities, and how we can change them. Co-sponsored with the Institute for Policy Studies and The Nation Institute.

Speakers include:

Joseph Stiglitz, nobel laureate economist

Emira Woods, Institute for Policy Studies

Miriam Miranda, OFRANEH, Honduras.

Carl Redwood, Jr., Hill District Consensus Group

Rev. John Welch, President, Pittsburgh Interfaith Impact Network
(PIIN)

Leo Gerard, International President, United Steelworkers (USW)

PEOPLE'S
VOICES
ON THE HILL
SEPT.23-25,2009
www.pittsburghunited.org/g20

For more information visit www.pittsburghunited.org/g20, email peoplesvoices.events@gmail.com or call: 412-231-8648.